WE FLY WEM

PURPOSE

The purpose of this event is to once again bring to the fore the importance of Police-Community relations. It is essential to continue to work on building trust between law enforcement and members of the community. This project will also generate ideas on improving and sustaining police-community engagement.

We have partnered with the Whitely Community Council, Muncie Police Department and Ball State University Police Department for this event with the intention of creating a template for building stronger police-community relationships within the Muncie Community

Promote police-community engagement events and programs such as; lunch with a cop, national night out, and citizens police academy

Dr Lorenzo Boyd Ph.D
University of New Haven

Lorenzo M. Boyd, Ph.D., is a nationally recognized leader in police-community relations and an authority on urban policing, diversity issues in criminal justice, race and crime, and criminal justice systems.

A former president of the Academy of Criminal Justice Science and a life member of the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE), Dr. Boyd has appeared on local, regional, and national media outlets to discuss policing in the aftermath of high-profile cases.

Dr. Boyd currently serves as the University of New Haven's Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion and Chief Diversity Officer.

Guest Speaker
Officer Tommy
Norman
North Little Rock
Police Department

“We have to work together to make our community a safer and more peaceful place to live”.

Tommy Norman is a Police Officer who has worked for the North Little Rock Police Department since 1998. Officer Norman has received national attention for his actions concerning the people in his community, specifically focusing on the youth.

Norman is known for positive community policing. He is credited for doing things like presenting 50 NLRSD students with backpacks and $50 gift cards from Shoe Carnival to purchase shoes, starting the “Shop with a Cop” program to help financially struggling students or just dancing with the children.

Officer Norman graduated from Ole Main High School in 1990. He has three children and eight siblings.
